

Way Of Working

The most important overall goal should be to find your way of working, either for yourself if you're a lone wolf, or for your team if you're working in one.

A big part of that way of working is to adopt better practices and live by them. There are areas, though, where it's a matter of preference more than one of textbook definitions.

Disclaimer: The following pages describe the HSE WoW, our way of working.
